2. Descripción y objetivos de la materia

English is the language of international communication in various areas and especially in International Relations. Advanced Oral Expression, Reading and Writing are fundamental tasks for undergraduates in International Relations who seek to work in an increasingly globalized world.

This course uses technical activities and strategies to develop orality (listening and speaking), and writing through reading, discussions, debates, interviews, oral presentations, music and role plays to help students communicate in both oral and written forms to practice how to express themselves in an appropriate and professional manner.

Advanced Oral Expression, Reading and Writing contribute to the integrated development of students of International Relations. As a professional in this field, students are required to contribute knowledge and understanding in the global context. English is the foreign language which supports such knowledge.
