2. Descripción y objetivos de la materia

In this course, students will be prepared to work and to lead a variety of business and management positions by learning the business culture and practicing the related vocabulary used everyday in organizations that use American English. Students will learn business etiquette, formal vocabulary, and idioms related to such functions as: planning and leading meetings; negotiating; communicating with superiors, subordinates, and peers; discussing financial information; providing customer service; working in and leading teams; developing proposals; and communicating for the Internet.

Proper communication through written English is not only important at the academic level, but also in one's professional field. Through Business English and Writing Skills, students will learn and practice the English writing skills needed to succeed in international studies and business environments.

This course reinforces and enhances previous knowledge obtained in Technical Writing and Advanced English Composition, to prepare students for future English writing projects such as the thesis design and the thesis itself.

Metodología

Classes will contain both theoretical and practical material. The teacher will give a brief theoretical explanation on various business topics and communication strategies to approach different situations in business environment. Students will be required to write messages, memos and business letters to address the specific situations in different settings/cases.

The course will include traditional communication: memos, business letters, etc.; as well as communications in the digital era, such as emails, text messages or WhatsApp.

Assignments are due on the date assigned. Late material will be graded but a reduced score will be recorded.

Criterios de Evaluación

All written assignments and projects will be evaluated on correct English spelling, grammar, and logical presentation of ideas.

Every assignment must include proper bibliographic citations; plagiarism will not be accepted in any way. Plagiarism will result in a zero score for an assignment, and subsequent offenses can result in course failure.

Three modules of 10 points each will be graded during the semester. In each module, 5 points consist of classwork, worksheets, case studies and presentations. The other 5 points correspond to a test that will be given at the end of each period.

Classwork (individual and in-group), worksheets and case studies will be graded over 1 or 2 points, according to the length and difficulty of the task. Students will be informed in advance about the date of presentation, the contents and grades for each task.

NOTE: TEACHER WILL PROVIDE A HARD COPY OF THE CONTENTS OF THE COURSE ON THE FIRST DAY OF CLASS.
